

Animate and Create

Experience the art of animated teamwork, where imagination and collaboration collide!

Animate and Create is a team building activity that mimics the process of film production in a fun and interactive way. Each team member will be given specific roles to fulfil, working together to create a fully functioning animated production.

How it Works:

The team will agree on a plot for their animated production. They will then create a storyboard to bring their ideas to life. Next, the team will design and create unique characters that will populate their production.

The team will then build and design a scenery that suits the plot and characters. The activity will require the team to make their own props that will complement the production. Once the scenery and props are completed, the team will produce the set and prepare for the final step.

The last step is where the real fun begins. The team will yell "Action" and start filming their production. This is where each member's role is vital, as they work together to ensure the whole production fits together. With everyone's input, the team will produce a fantastic animated production that is sure to impress.
