

Cooking Party

Stir up a bonding experience with a hands-on cooking party for your team!

Get ready for a culinary extravaganza! Our exciting team building activity combines the best of two popular cooking challenges, Strictly Come Dining and Marks, Set, Cook! Led by our expert chefs, your group will learn valuable culinary techniques while enjoying a fun and creative environment that encourages communication and teamwork.

How it Works:

Teams will be given a mystery bag of ingredients and a cookery station loaded with all the necessary equipment. Each team will be responsible for creating two courses, with the option of adding a competitive element if desired. The panel of judges will consist of the chefs, who will evaluate the dishes based on taste, presentation, and creative use of ingredients. In addition, teams will have tokens to spend in the larder, adding an exciting twist to the challenge.

At the end of the session, teams can "break bread" and enjoy the results of their cooking while bonding over the shared experience. With the guidance of our expert chefs, your group will not only develop their culinary skills but also strengthen their communication and teamwork abilities. Get ready to stir things up and create a masterpiece with this unforgettable team building activity!
